We pride ourselves in the integrity of our herds
But words are just words are just words

While the brand you wear is the same as mine
We can't be out if step if we are still in line

One more round - One more round
We wouldn't want to tread new ground
One more round

Another circle drawn for another carbon copy
As we limit ourselves to the flag of our flock

Circle pit mentality - individ removal

Cut to fit - for punkrock herd approval

A shepherd vacancy, but don't look to us.
All the phony Beatle mania has bitten to dust

The circle complete in the imitation zone
Find a new king for your throne
Find a new king for your throne

One more round - One more round
We wouldn't want to tread new ground
One more round
