Staying up all night planning the downfall
Of your corrupted system
What plot will I figure out and
What thoughts will I pen down?
I will have my coup d'tat
I will start a riot
I will hold your burning flag
In my hand
Sitting up all night planning
My revolution with a catchy phrase
A shitty band with an awesome plan
A punk crusade throughout the land
Sick of silence, of passive masses
Educate, resist and take control
To live a life in fear of changing
Is to not live at all
I will have my coup d'tat
I will start a riot
I will hold your burning flag
In my hand
And I will watch your empire fall
I will not die for you
I will not kill for you
I will not fight for you
I will hold your burning flag in my hand
As I watch your empire fall
'Cause I know it will...
I will have my coup d'tat
