When your heart is black and broken And you need a helping hand When you're so much in love You don't know just how much you can stand When your questions go unanswered And the silence is killing you Take my hand baby, I'm your man I got love enough for two Ten storey love song I built this thing for you Who can take you any higher Than twin peak mountain blue?
Oh well, I built this thing for you And I love you true There's no sure fire set solution No short cut through the trees No breach in the wall That they put there To keep me from you As you're lying awake in the darkness This everlasting night Someday soon Don't know where or when You're gonna wake up and see the light Ten storey love song I built this thing for you Who can take you any higher Than twin peak mountain blue?
Oh well, I built this thing for you And I love you true
