"My Crown"

Do you wanna see what I see?
You ain't seen nothing yet.
Do you wanna know what I know?
I don't know. I don't know anything.

I took you in, you took me down.
Before my body hit the ground.
I saw you trying on my crown, I was ever only looking
out for you.
I made the rules when I was queen.
I drew the lines and in between.
And it's a long fall from the top when you once had it
all.

Do you wanna feel what I feel?
Well, I don't feel a thing.
Do you wanna see what I see?
In your eyes: My sister, traitor, friend.

I took you in, you took me down.
Before my body hit the ground.
I saw you trying on my crown, I was ever only looking
out for you.
I made the rules when I was queen.
I drew the lines and in between.
And it's a long fall from the top when you once had it
all.

I brought you in to bring me down.
I took you in, you took me down.
Before my body hit the ground, as dust settled all around.
I saw your fingers reaching out trying on my crown.

I took you in, you took me down.
Before my body hit the ground.
I saw you trying on my crown, I was ever only looking
out for you.
I made the rules when I was queen.
I drew the lines and in between.
And it's a long fall from the top when you once had it

all.

I made the rules when I was queen.

I drew the lines and in between.

And it's a long fall from the top when you once had it
all.

When you once had it all.

When you once had it all.
