

The Storm

"Sweet Remarque"

Wild but true
I did something foolish
I had the whole wide world
Spinning right on my finger

I must pay
For driving all my friends away
But all my error landscape
Vanishes
Just like that
Cause I know you are here

Like a fire in the dark
Im gonna leave my sweet remarque
Some things never change
But would I do it all again

Set adrift
Onto the open sea
I have no flag, no compass
Just the moon on my head
And I know you are here

Like a fire in the dark
Im gonna leave my sweet remarque
Some things never change
But would I do it all again
Some things never change
