"The Only Thing I Knoe"

When I see you again
And I ask you how you've been
You'll smile and you'll say
"I've been OK"

I never got to say goodbye
Maybe I was the last one to knoe
I'll quietly surrender to all that I remember
So maybe then you'll never really go
You'll stay with me in my memories forever
But I knoe that I must say

Goodbye for now but I'll see you again
I knoe it's not the end
Goodbye for now and I'll savor this
Untill the day I see you

So tell me, how's the view up there?
They say the moonset is quite the thing to stare
The stars are shining brighter
So I can tell you're smiling down
I knoe I'll be sleeping better
It's just a 'See you later'

Goodbye for now but I'll see you again
I knoe it's not the end
Goodbye for now and I'll savor this
Untill the day I see you

Goodbye
