Give me something to talk about
Take your time
Tell me something to do without
I'll wait in line
I don't know
What to say
Move along
Anyway
Take it slow
Lonely road
Is the path
That I seem to follow

All I want to do is be true to my ways
Leaning back and forward were playing the game
All this pain I've cause you I know it by name
Taking this ticket walking away

Taking all that has come and gone
You know we're wrong

Watching everyone hum along
We're still untold

Fall in love
Let it go
I dont know
What it's for
Take a stand
Falling down
Dig on in
Cuz it's all that you've got now
