Waiting
You sit alone
Feelings have all faded
You're wondering why you have stayed
You're looking for some answers
Hoping theres some other way
Just tell me when you're ready
We'll get you far far away
Far from these troubled times

Looking at the way you stand and fall
Seems like everything you've had is gone
Tell me that you've heard this all before
I'll say it anyway

Leave this
You've seen that road
Just find another city
Get this out of your way
You're hiding out wondering
How to get rid of this pain
You talk a bunch of nothing
Seems so easy to see
You've seen enough troubled times
