Could I get a word in? Before you slide the fucking turd in. Taken all the G7 dick I can handle. Time to go down and bite off the roman candle. Thanks for the aid now I pay you back triple.

Business as usual, gang-rape a cripple. You got the gat in the small of my back.

So I hope you wanna tell me where your conscience is at.

Thanks for the aid, you traders enslave

(repeated a few times)

Jesus God fuck it. Got to make a profit. Pop it in the coffin marked structural adjustment. Check out the scenery, high yielding greenery. Can't feed the kids but would you like a cup of coffee?

Chemical intravene fat plantation. Where'd you get the shit? Oh but buy it from Satan. Just around the corner, service with a smile. His first name's car, his last name's gill.

Thanks for the aid, you traders enslave
