i like repetitive music (x6) turn it up 'cause i know how to use it i like to let the loopy stuff do the rebel rousing pop the damn multi on the s3000 that's the shit makes the room prone to over crowding now then bring the sound in - ooh it's pounding

'scuse me homies could you please be my cronies and score me a two pack of soft yellow foamies 'cause i'm the type of guy that puts safety first no safer mother fucker ever walked the earth strapped in all wheel huggin' dual bag inflation safer than programmed amplitude modulation feeling a strange sensation? that's your brain son suffering from over-stimulation, inflammation by my reckoning you now have five seconds before lapsing into a coma tick this box to indicate you're a donor would it be bold to say i told you to hold the last bar over and over and over

i like repetitive music (x8)

i'm so fine i scored 9.99 from hollyfield in a trump production even though i'm 200 of a kind so inclined to liposuction it's sublime like britney's larynx at the age of nine watch me try justify my verbal diarrheic diatribe in a vain attempt to coincide with a beat to which brains get tenderised lightly battered and deep fried on high once again son come get some beats on the one loops on repeats done

waveforms deformed, fantast lyric gymnast, bombast ecclesiast slap that ass hardcore, make that shit red raw blow the disco, slam your head sore watch the sure cure beat the prevention if you want more seek professional medical attention...

i like repetitive music (x16)
