"Nothin' Ever Happens"

I see the future signs of things to come
Nothing will happen that's already been done
The prepackaged bands with some white trash flash
It's just as much fun as a kick in the ass

'Cos nothing ever happens, nothing ever happens
Nothing ever happens, nothing ever happens at all

Stick to the rules and fucking tow the line
Angle for airplay everything will be fine
And you're so beautiful and you're so sweet
It makes me so sick I'd rather chew on my feet

'Cos nothing ever happens, nothing ever happens
Nothing ever happens, nothing ever happens at all
