Cells divide, multiply
And when you get out you'll be doing your time
It's an easy face for a pretty place
And if you play by the rules you'll be king of the race

Institutionalized nine to five
Knowledge is power but it's polarized
Killing time, popularized
Sure is getting hard to tell the shit from the flies

Sometimes you don't make no sense at all
And sometimes it's like it's surely gonna fall
Sometimes it's like we've done it all before
And sometimes I just cry

Strange human being
Strange human being
Strange human being
Strange human being

Another war for peace, video game
Slot the coins, view the pain
Bugs to kill, poppin' the pills
Genetics one, immunity nil

Revolution time, hero to find
Get the junk food, tie-in for the merchandise
Sugary lies, disembodied truths
Handy to the candy and the freedom to choose

Sometimes you don't make no sense at all
And sometimes it's like it's surely gonna fall
Sometimes it's like we've done it all before
And sometimes I just cry

Strange human being
Strange human being
Strange human being
Strange human being

This one's for the kids, yeah
This one's for the kids, yeah

This one's for the kids, yeah
This one's for the kids, yeah
This one's for the kids, yeah
This one's for the kids, yeah
