The times we shared
The times we shared, you made me feel like you cared Now you're gone, I should move on The wounds are deep, feelings are still too steep Comfort me, thought you were meant for me

Stay with me, don't leave me
I'm not strong; hold me in your arms
No guarantees in life, you're alive today next week you die
I sacrificed took you in my life, open up my heart to you But your feelings are untrue, can't you see it's killing me

Look at me Stay with me, don't leave me I'm not strong; hold me in your arms
Stay with me, don't leave me I'm not strong; hold me in
your arms
