I'm barely livin' in my skin, depression's my only friend and I don't know where I am heading, tryin' to forget where I've been and I'm so sick of lying, God please show me that silver lining cuz I've heard tale and I'm not well, my heads full of hell and this world's a jail
And this cell in which I dwell is getting weaker by the day
Reality is in the mirror, I get scared and look away
And it don't matter and I don't care
I let my pain into the air cuz everything good's over there and everything here's hard to bear
and it don't matter and I don't care
and everything here's hard to bear
And so they say that life's a play and that all the world's a stage then for another part I pray, the show ends the same way everyday and my heart carries the pain of a brain I can't explain am I'm insane I'm runnin' out of people to blame it's even hard to believe the truth, staring the proof right in the face this overwhelming sense of doom, am I just taking up space?
And it don't matter and I don't care
I let my pain into the air
and everything here's hard to bear
and it don't matter and I don't care
I let my pain into the air
and everything here's hard to bear
And everything good is gone
and everything bad is here

it doesn't really matter now does it?
And it don't matter and I don't care
I let my pain into the air
and everything here's hard to bear
and it don't matter and I don't care
I let my pain into the air
and everything here's hard to bear Yeah, everything here's hard to bear
and everything here's hard to bear
and everything here's hard to bear everything here's hard to bear
