Where'd I fuck up?
Where did I get this feeling
That makes me feel like giving up?
Where'd I go wrong?
I guess I kept this bottled up
Inside for much too long

And now I've got nowhere to turn to
Find understanding
Just closed minds and closed doors
No one gives a damn for what I'm saying
I find myself asking myself,
Why am I trying so hard?

Should I spend my time?
If the world is against me,
Is giving up a lesser crime?
Is it too late?
I'm stuck out on a limb
And I can't seem to concentrate

Now I've got nowhere to turn to
Find understanding
Just bullshit and closed doors
No one gives a damn for what I'm saying
I find myself asking myself,
Why am I trying so hard?

'Cause there's something left inside of me
That keeps me on the go
'Cause I can't stand when I just give up
There's so much more to know
