Pour some liquor on my ulcer
I wanna talk about the pain
Come on friend, lets sit and suffer
Together man together man
I'm strangely angry, unashamed deranged
My lady says I'm broke
Because I'm scared of change
My lady says I'm broke
Because I'm scared of change

(w-w-w-w-w-whateva, don't fuel the drama)

I slammed my boss man on his neck
Took my check
Kicked a dent in the prick's benz
Bent the antenna
Once again I'm unemployed
But once I get up with my boys
I'm copastetic
The past is too over to sweat it
Wifey told me to get sober
But I told her to get it
I'm so firmly embedded
In my bullheaded ways

Goin home, I dread it
Feels like I'm bein pulled seven ways
I hate it
I'm jaded
Simply stated, I'm faded
Ain't it a bitch

If I was paid
Let all swing from my dick
Wanna sing all my shit
Now caring's the only thing that I'm eager to quit
Yeah, I teeter a bit
On the edge of sanity
They say Danny be trippin
Cause they hear my teeth as they grit

Pour some liquor on my ulcer
I wanna talk about the pain
Come on friend, lets sit and suffer
Together man together man
I'm strangely angry, unashamed, deranged
My lady says I'm broke
Because I'm scared of change
My lady says I'm broke
Because I'm scared of change

(w-w-w-w-w-whateva, don't fuel the drama)

So many people and opinions
It drains my energy
I care about me exclusively
No apologies or excess baggage
To damage or slow my pursuit
Of max potential

Sick of advice
Cloggin my noggin
Finding selfishness is essential
I'll snap like a pencil
Passed pissed
Pushin psychotic fists through sheetrock
Why the boundaries
No more concience or tact
That prove to be narcissim fat

No more respect
Fuck what you feel
Far as I know my thoughts and visions
Are the only things real
I'm not an extra in a movie
About everyone else
I got a thousand fuck you's to give out
It's time to hit below the belt
And backstab with violent aggression
And spit in fuckers faces

Pour some liquor on my ulcer
Come on friend, lets sit and suffer
My lady says I'm broke
Because I'm scared of change
My lady says I'm broke
Because I'm scared of change

w-w-w-w-w-whateva, don't fuel the drama

I hear a whorring beast
I'm in a war for peace
The tears pour from these eyes
The core of me tries
To store the heat rise
And inside of me
My anger bangs on my brain
But i manage not to do damage
What a planet we inhabit
Its sad but its true dammit
The dealer of bad habits
Is working his black magic
Imagine packin the gadget
You grabbed from your dads cabinet
With nothin less than evil intentions

Pour some liquor on my ulcer
Come on friend, lets sit and suffer
My lady says I'm broke
Because I'm scared of change
My lady says I'm broke

w-w-w-w-w-whateva, don't fuel the drama
