We live like there ain't no tomorrow
No regrets, no time for this sorrow
Keep moving one foot in front of the other
We're all looking for something, hey, hey, hey

I'm in the center lane on a freeway
My radiator blown on a 100 degree day
And I'm more in a hurry than I was before
And once again the whole world is in my way

So this is earth and I'm stuck here
Where profanity pours from faces like mine
The only thing that we're sure of
Is we're running out of money, patience and time

One step forward and two steps back
And we're wishing for a future, reminiscing on a flashback
Chasing a dream, hoping it exists
And we're gritting our teeth and clenching our fists

We live like there ain't no tomorrow
No regrets, no time for this sorrow
Keep moving one foot in front of the other
We're all looking for something, hey, hey, hey

We live like there ain't no tomorrow
No regrets, no time for this sorrow
Keep moving one foot in front of the other
We're all looking for something, hey, hey, hey

Am I crazy? Maybe, my brain be gravy
Insane, the days we have witnessed lately
It pains me greatly someone could hate me
Maybe they were lied to as babies too

Can't see logic, we camouflage it
Technology allows us to dip and dodge it
With magic gadgets, wires and magnets
We standing stagnant and thinking backwards

A whole bunch of nothing is in our way

I said, a whole bunch of nothing is in our way
A whole bunch of nothing is in our way
I said, a whole bunch of nothing is in our way

We live like there ain't no tomorrow
No regrets, no time for this sorrow
Keep moving one foot in front of the other
We're all looking for something, hey, hey, hey

We live like there ain't no tomorrow
No regrets, no time for this sorrow
Keep moving one foot in front of the other
We're all looking for something, hey, hey, hey

We live like there ain't no tomorrow
No regrets, no time for this sorrow
Keep moving one foot in front of the other
We're all looking for something, hey, hey, hey

We live like there ain't no tomorrow
No regrets, no time for this sorrow
Keep moving one foot in front of the other
We're all looking for something, hey, hey, hey

Hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey
