I woke up and found
No one beside me
No hand to hold onto
And no lips to guide me
What a hard world to face
In the light of an angry sun
Ain't it hard to get on,
If you ain't got that someone

[Chorus:]
And it seems that my days are numbered
Down to a precious few
People I know that
My days are numbered
'cause I can't get it back together
Without you.

I see the heaven moonlight
See it drippin' down my window
Flowing like a river
Through the tears that I have cried
I gotta find myself, hey
A reason to go on living
But you can't breathe life into somethin'
That's already died

[Chorus]

[Guitar Solo]

[Chorus]

Hey Hey
I got ta tell you right now
Every morning
[Fades]
