Well she would never say she loved me, but this I somehow knew There'd come a day she'd leave me lonely, as I was sure the sky is blue By the time I woke the mornin', she was already up and gone
YOU'RE IN MY EVERY MEMORY AND I WONDER IS IT ME, THAT YOU SEE IN THE BACK OF YOUR MIND
IN THE BACK OF YOUR MIND
And though she's lost to me forever, our secret will remain
There in the nights we spent together, on earth we're bound by love in vain Til the sky above has fallen, we'll be together once again
(CHORUS)
And when the sky above has fallen, we'll be together once again
(CHORUS)
In the back of your mind
In the back of your mind
In the back of your mind
