Crawl

(Sweet Water)

Cut me down
It's beautiful
Dying once, a thousand times
I try to walk away
But she gives me just what I ask for

Even more
I lay down at her feet
And I like it all, yes I do
Even more, these precious things
I-I-I need

Steal my heart, right from my chest
Under my breath, under my skin
I try to walk away
But she's in me, and I can't help myself

Even more
I lay down at her feet
And I like it all, yes I do
Even more, these precious things
I-I-I need
Yeah

These precious things, these precious things I need,
yeah
These precious things, these precious things I need

These precious things, these precious things I need
These precious things, these precious things I need

Cut me down
It's beautiful
Dying once, a thousand times
Even more, these precious things
But she gives me just what I ask for

Even more
Even more
Even more

These precious things, these precious things I need,
yeah

These precious things, these precious things, these precious things I need

These precious things, these precious things, these
precious things I need

These precious things, these precious things, these
precious things I need

These precious things, these precious things, these
precious things I need

I'd die for you to do it
I'd die for you to do it
I'd die for you to do it

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah
Oh, yeah
