Do you wanna be rich?
Do you wanna be a superstar?
Well honey you already are
You already are
You already are
Do you wanna be rich?
Do you wanna be a superstar?
Well baby you already are
You already are
Well I saw you today
You were looking more than okay
With your pirate dress on and your cheshire grin
Yeah they're all lined up to meet you
Get a chance to be with who's who
Number 1-3-7 yeah you know what I mean
And it just seems a shame
Another changes, it's all the same
Another barroom queen on the boulevard
Do you wanna be rich?
Do you wanna be a superstar?
Well honey you already are
You already are
Do you wanna be rich?
Do you wanna be a superstar?
Well baby you already are
You already are
A superstar
Well I know you're just a kid
And we all know what you did
That'll teach you not to spit where you might sleep
Yeah they all wanna be you
Get a taste of sugarcane
You know things aren't always what they seem
With your diamond pointed boots
Yeah they look better than you do
Another worn out scene on the FMR
A tapped out disposition
Well I think there's something missing
All the beautiful people
You know who you are
Do you wanna be rich?

Do you wanna be a superstar?
Well honey you already are
You already are
Do you wanna be rich?
Do you wanna be a superstar?
Well baby you already are
You already are
A superstar
Give up your name
To a girl who's your new best friend
Come see the bright lights tomorrow
You wanna read about yourself
And cut up the pages
Sugarcane went that day
Sugarcane went away
Do you wanna be rich?
Do you wanna be a superstar?
Honey you already are
You already are
A superstar, star
A star
A star
