INTRO:

Sometimes it's hard,
To love your life,
But know I'm here,
To help you through your strife,
But sometimes I can't help but remember,
The other side,
Back there the only thing that mattered was life,
And nothing could pass through the light,

Now all those people,
From that other side,
Ask me what it's like over here,
And I, I tell them lies,
I feel the guilt afterwards,
But sometimes the truth comes out instead,

CHORUS:

Whats on the other side?
Are the rumors true?
Middle school royalty is here.
And I'm here to tell you,
Not to be so sure,
And the answer is,
The grass ain't greener,
On the other side

Wish I was back with you,
No worries 'bout the views of others,
Sometimes but rarely,
Secretly wishing,
We were on this other side,
Now all you want from me is the truth about the lies,

CHORUS:

Whats on the other side?
Are the rumors true?
Middle school royalty is here.
And I'm here to tell you,
Not to be so sure,
And the answer is,

The grass ain't greener,
On the other side,

BRIDGE:

Don't go wondering,
You're better off not knowing,
Cause once you do,
All your thoughts will change...

CHORUS 2:

Whats on the other side?
There ain't much but the gray skies,
Here on the other side...
