Grey winter skies
Cannot dim your light
Autumn winds
Cannot hold you now
I hear you whisper
Thru the frozen sea
I hear you calling
Gold desert sands
Shift across the sun
Summer snow
Falls on everyone
But still you whisper
Thru the frozen sea
I hear you crying - to me
Melting snow a midnight sun
Not how it was when the world was young
Melting snow a midnight sun
Not how it was when the world begun
I hear you whisper
Thru the frozen sea
I hear you crying
Melting snow a midnight sun
Not how it was when the world was young
Melting snow a midnight sun
Not how it was when it all begun
Melting snow a midnight sun
Not how it was when the world was young
Melting snow a midnight sun
Not how it was when it all begun
