I'm waiting for a chance
To take your soul out into a dance
And watch you fade into the night
While time rushes through rifted clouds

I don't know where I've been
But I know that I'm coming to you
You just got to believe in me
You just got to believe

Haunted by ghosts the wind cries out
We meet by the door of dreams
And walk into the night
Beaten by waves we rest upon a stone
In a pace of a dance we slowly awake

I don't know where I've been
But I know that I'm coming to you
You just got to believe in me
Believe in me

And now I freeze on the mountain all alone
I'm lost in bygone days
And when I breathe roses turn to stone
'Cause I'm so caught up in you

I don't know where I've been
But I know that I'm coming to you
You just got to believe in me
Just got to believe in me
