Look at all the lonely souls
No one to hold they're falling down
Everyone seems so far away
We got to let go and come back around

No more crying
You got stand and face all of your fears
Dry your tears
Deep down you feel your victory is near
No more crying
No no no no no
We're here to last

Jealous people try to steal love
Take away what they never had Never capturing the perfect moment
Living their lives way too fast

No more crying
You got stand and face all of your fears
Dry your tears
Deep down you feel your victory is near
No more crying
No no no no no
We're here to last

I sense empty souls even more empty minds
Has it come to an end with no hope of any shine
Can't stress enough matters of positivity
Don't call me a preacher's son
I only wish you harmony
You know well there's still better to come
Strong spirited you know you'll overcome
Fellons the lies the masters of disguise
You've seen all the traps
This time you'll be more wise

No more crying
You got stand and face all of your fears
Dry your tears
Deep down you feel your victory is near

No more crying
No no no no no
We're here to last

Feel it all around you
Feel how it surrounds you
Feel it all around
Feel how it surrounds you
