I have no words left I think I've said it all
This morning star won't rise or fall
Left all alone in this self-delusion
Catching thoughts from the floor

I feel like running barefoot upon the sea
Lost my religion who's gonna set me free

A rested mind a day of constant dreaming
Comes to pass this falling soul
I'm floating around lost for a reason
Trying to recall my life so far

I feel like running barefoot upon the sea
Lost my religion who's gonna set me free
