"Leaving You"

When I need you give me your hands flat
Now you need me I can't be having that
You lie to me and make me feel things true
So now my cum won't be brewing you

I take the records you can keep the cat
'Cause I'm leaving you
You play around and I feel true blue
'Cause I'm leaving you

And if I find out what I want to do
There might be some way to escape from you
Alter my mind and bend the universe
Counting the dollars falling into my purse

I take the records you can keep the cat
'Cause I'm leaving you
You play around and I feel true blue
'Cause I'm leaving you

Now I'm evolving 'cause I'm not with you
A mind expanding never feeling blue
The world to me is generally the same
Without the needles flowing through my veins

I take the records you can keep the cat
'Cause I'm leaving you
You play around and I feel true blue
'Cause I'm leaving you
