Go on just say it,
You need me like a bad habit,
One that leaves you defenseless, dependent, and
alone.
Go on just say it
(Are you afraid to)
You need me like a bad habit
(Say what you want to, tell me you want to)
One that leaves you defenseless, dependent, and
alone
(Are you afraid to say what you want to, tell me you want to).

Well I hold my tongue use it to assess,
The damage from way back when it mattered,
But nothing seems important anymore,
We're just protecting ourselves from our self,
And I dont think Ill ever come back down
(I dont think Ill ever come back down)
I dont think Ill ever come back down
(I dont think Ill ever come back down)
I dont think Ill ever come back down
(I dont think Ill ever come back)
I dont think Ill ever come back

Are you ashamed to say what you want to,
Tell me you want to.
Are you ashamed to say what you want to,
Tell me you want to.
Go on just say it
(Are you ashamed to)
Go on just say it
(Say what you want to)
(Tell me you want to)
Go on just say it
(Are you ashamed to)
Go on just say it
(Say what you want to)
(Tell me you want to.)

I'm making the difference,

It just seems pointless,
With all the obvious lines all out of focus,
Why cant you just be happy?
Why cant you just be happy?

And I dont think Ill ever come back down
(I dont think Ill ever come back down)
I dont think Ill ever come back down
(I dont think Ill ever come back down)
I dont think Ill ever come back down
I dont think Ill ever come back)
I dont think Ill ever come back...

(Just come back, just come back...)
Go on just say it, (just come back...)
Come on just say it, (just come back...)
Well Ill just say it, (just come back...)
Ill just say it, (just come back...)
I need you defenseless, dependent and alone.
(Just come back, just come back, just come back...)
She says live up to your first impression,
Well my best side was your worst invention,
Can't you live without the attention?
Can't you live without the attention?
(Just come back, just come back, just come back...)
She says live up to your first impression,
Well my best side was your worst invention,
Can't you live without the attention?
Can't you live without the attention?

She says live up to your first impression,
Well my best side was your worst invention,
Can't you live without the attention?
Can't you live without the attention?

She says live up to your first impression (Come on, just say it),
Well my best side was your worst invention (Come on, just say it),
Why can't you live without the attention
(I need you defenseless, dependent),
Why can't you live without the attention (alone).
She says live up to your first impression (I just say it),
Well my best side was your worst invention (I just say it),
Why can't you live without the attention
(I need you defenseless, dependent),
Why can't you live without the attention (Alone),
Why can't you live (Defenseless, dependent),
Why can't you live (Defenseless, dependent),
Why can't you live without... live without

(Defenseless, dependent, defenseless, dependent),
Why can't you live (Defenseless, dependent),
Why can't you live (Defenseless, dependent),
Why can't you live without live without
(Defenseless, dependent, defenseless, dependent).
