

Reina "Forgive"

I always said that would be it, that I wouldn't stick around
If it ever came to this and here I am, I'm so confused
How am I supposed to leave when I can't even move
In the time it would've took to say, "Honey I'm home, how was your day"
You dropped a bomb where we live and just expect me to

Forgive that's a mighty big word
For such a small man and I'm not sure I can
I don't even know now who I am
It's too soon for me to say forgive

Well I should ask but I won't, was it love or just her touch?
I don't think I want to know, so get your things and get out
Don't call me for a day or two so I can sort this out Well, you might as well have ripped the life
Right out of me right here tonight
When through the falling tears you said, "Well can't you ever just forgive"

Forgive that's a mighty big word
For such a small man and I'm not sure I can
I don't even know now who I am
It's too soon for me to say forgive

You know what they say, "Forgive and forget" Relive and regret but I just can't

Forgive that's a mighty big word
For such a small man and I'm not sure I can
I don't even know now who I am
It's too soon for me to say forgive
