I cannot dare to look
At exactly what you took
I give it time to breathe
And wipe its tears on my sleeve

And it will break my heart
With every sound it makes,
on you
And it's all over dear
You squeeze my hand and I
I know it's true

His little hand round my thumb
Makes me warm and numb
I hold my breath and smile and hope it stays for a while

And it will break my heart
With every sound it makes,
on you
And it's all over dear
You squeeze my hand and I
I know it's true
