"Farewell"

Visit "Farewell" on MotoLyrics.com

Come and see
The morning's here
The turnstone sleeps
On the rusty pier
And it's only time
But it's a new year
If only I knew why
But I'm still here
With you.

Things will be much better
Come April or May
Time can be so cruel
But it'll be my friend someday
There was a lot we didn't say
Wasn't there, Josephine
There were oceans in our way
But what does that even mean?

The fateful damn goodbye
As the trains pull in and out
The ruthlessness of time
The rain, the end
Only we will laugh about
Skinnyless big brown shoes
We sleep too long
The world might wake up without you
