Wouldn't you like to Know what makes us
So alike
And what keeps me on my toes
What makes you smile
What makes you glow
Look at us we're both so high
When we think about this
When we think about this
Life

Baby listen up before I go
And say these things
That won't mean a thing when daylight comes
Baby what more can I say
It's not my fault
That we're just
Not meant to be

Move it to the bed
I know it's the part you always
Dread
I put my words inside your head
Look at us we're both so high
Can't even think about this
Life
Don't even think about it
I love when you lick your lips
The ones I want to kiss
I can't resist

Baby listen up before I go
And say these things
That won't mean a thing when daylight comes
Baby what more can I say
It's not my fault
That we're just
Not meant to be

Every night in my room
She strips while I kiss her lips

Every night in my room
I get a tighter grip
Every night in my room
She strips while I kiss her lips
I get a tighter grip
Ooooooooooh

Baby listen up before I go
And say these things
That won't mean a thing when daylight comes
Baby what more can I say
It's not my fault
That we're just
