Come say hi to the lone ranger, some say stranger I've Been this way since the beginning, from the cradle.
Now they label me that arrogant fuck I ain't Complaining how can they judge my mind if my intentions
Are stable.

To be honest I'm kind of a straight to the point Figure, mr. Confront u ask and I deliver Don't brag or boast I rock a rollercoast(er), that Means I take u on my ride and bring u back to the Beginning.

I make mistakes, but try to keep doing things right,
Take the blame for all the feelings that you hide
That's all I can do I can't read u inside, u see u got Yours and I've got my mind and that's life.

I won't complain about about the live I live, I won't
Complain about the things I did, I'm roller coasting,
Got my mind playing tricks, but my intentions are as Good as it gets, just like this.

Once u make some mistakes in your life, how long must
One carry that weight.
Will there be pain, scars, tears, nothing but cries,
When is one price paid.

I never saw it coming, it's like I just got hit, I Cannot even explain my mind and hair in a twist.
Just don't know how to act by experience, cuz I do what

I feel like in an accident.
So blame me for doing the things I do best, I manifest
Like that so get it off your chest,
But nevertheless I can't help the way I express, my Intentions are good.
So don't you go feeling offended, just let it all go,
Rest your soul and let it breathe for a minute.
There ya go. Let me finish with introducing my self Proper, Llew the issue: Perona non grata.

I won't complain about about the live I live, I won't
Complain about the things I did, I'm roller coasting,
Got my mind playing tricks, but my intentions are as Good as it gets, just like this.

Once u make some mistakes in your life, how long
must
One carry that weight.
Will there be pain, scars, tears, nothing but cries,
When is one price paid.

Sometimes it hits me by surprise, it hurts but still it Opens up my eyes. Stayin focused fuck that hocuspocus,
U catch me provokin cuz I settle for love. I run that River full of that salty water, I'm almost done crying, Almost at that border. So order me some food for Through to go, I'm gone, I'm out, I'm ghost, I'm home, Alone.
