[liner note:]

it's a typical cloudy day in canton, ohio, and the reliant k boys are trying to score something to do. matt t. gives dave's cell a phone call.

what's up dude?
i'm getting kind of bored let's get some food and then hit movies 4 what's going on?
whats up with all our friends?
let's start a rumor just to find out where it ends cause a small town is like a small stage for teenagers and their drama instead of playing shows, we'll be showing plays like 90210 without the beverly hills well, don't you think (don't you think), don't you think it's high time

that we never settle down (never settle down)
that we get out of this town (get out of this town) cause if we leave then we just might be okay hoopes i did it again

i messed everything up, and i think i hurt my friends
relationships that work are things that i can't

ohio has the flavor of a water chestnut it's not too crazy and it's not the best but we're not setting forest fires just out of boredom i'd rather see a movie if in fact i can afford one cause a small town is like a small stage
for teenagers and their drama

cause if we leave then we just might make a difference and if we leave then we just might be okay and i don't think it would hurt to get away

dan bakitus said i'm shallow he said i've got no integrity but, i don't know dan bakitus and dan bakitus, he don't know me cause we always say in canton you can't enjoy (canton joy) yourself well, there's truth to that but may i add

it's not half bad
and never less than that
