i was thinking
over thinking
cause there's just too many scenarios to analyze look in my eyes cause you're my dream please come true

about exactly how i'm not exactly him i'll break my heart in two more times than you could ever do

cause i think way too much
on a one track mind
and you're so out of touch cause i'm so far behind

i can't deny this anymore, the facts ignored all done
and if there's one in this world, you let me know you're not that girl i was sinking lower, sinking cause i lost the things i held on to they let me think a thought a thought that i would know was not of seeing my dream come true

about how far i had let this go one more guy/girl chickÃ© i know now you're just in the way of me and my dream come true

out of all of this
while your fading scent
just slips through my grip

and if there's one in this world,

don't touch the positive with the negative end
cause after all of the sparks you're still alone in the
cause after all of the sparks you're left alone in the

and while i'm able, i think i'll label experience with you as a mistake and while i'm at it, i'll say i've had it experience with you is a mistake

to think about to figure out if you're my dream please come true
