Savannah

I hope to be there by the morning
And see this pining all transforming
Into the arms of the Georgia sun
Savannah
I'd love to feel the heat the sunrise
Brushing rays across my windshield as if one dries
The streams from off my face

Yet I know you'll be there cause
You'll know I'll want you to be there
And we'll say hello as you're smiling in love
And we'll sigh so relieved I believe
Because we will both know by tonight we'll feel normal
again
But until then

Savannah

Our backs supported by a hammock
We sum up perfection like a handbook
And God knows it all too well

Savannah

We'll take a walk to find a gift shop
Who would've thought the book that you bought
Would never come off the shelf

Yet I know you'll be there cause
You'll know I'll want you to be there
And we'll say hello as you're smiling in love
And we'll sigh so relieved I believe
Because we will both know by tonight we'll feel normal
again
But until then
Until then
Until then

Baby

I spent my life wondering
Wondering when I'd find you
I searched for all these years and now you're right here
I need you to know that Everything makes sense when you're with me

Savannah

Walk out into the sultry evening
Cotton breathing when the sea winds
Brush the hair down around your neck

Savannah

You hold my hand like it's the first time
And all the feelings that our hearts find
Will be just what we expect

Yet I know you'll be there cause
You'll know I'll want you to be there
And we'll say hello as you're smiling in love
And we'll sigh so relieved I believe
Because we will both know by tonight we'll feel normal
again
But until then
Until then
Until then
