Some say that wishes really don't come true, don't come true
But I'm saying don't give up because sometimes they do, sometime they do

I wish that there was truth for the people I wish that weed was legal I wish that greed and hate were gone I wish if you agree, to pass it on I wish that we could all just get along and coexist
I wish that people talked with words instead of fists I wish that all the money spent on war was spent for peace
I wish that peaceful people weren't attacked by the police

I wish that we could all be free
I wish that we could all be free
I wish that we could all be free today

Don't waste your wishes on regret or on the past Don't waste them on the future, instead just choose to act
I wished to write songs, some are fun some have a message
Some are both, some are none, cross number one off of my checklist
