I Eat Lightning back with a new sound I've got the mother fucking bass that shakes the mother fucking ground
I've got a flow that wont stop, on a track that's so hot
If you see me at the show I'll probably ask you for pot
Any time of day, I'm down to smoke a blunt
I live my life how I want and I am having fucking fun
Sorry for the language, I don't mean to be offensive
But this censorship shit is just to damn sensitive

To much lust, and not enough love
Leaves a hole in your heart when push comes to shove
And when shove comes to push, fill my bowl with that kush
And I'll be feeling alright, no longer lost in the woods
What I don't understand is how they illegalized a plant
Oh shit I think this song is turning into just a rant
Or is every song a rant? and is every rant a song?
I don't know, I'm talking circles cuz I just hit the bong

In this world, I'm a little strange
Because I believe in love and this thing called change
Maybe you have heard of it, together we can give a shit
My hearts a little bigger than the beats that I am working with

Kids these days are growing up to fast
It used to be about love, now it's all about ass
Don't get me wrong, sure sex is fun
But when it comes to my list, love is number 1
Now a lot of peeps will prolly say this song is kind of shitty
And to them I say to each his own because I think it's pretty
And I'd like to see you try and make a beat compete with mine
I wrote this whole damn song in absolutely no time
