{*children screaming*}

{*bell rings*}

[Man over P.A. system]

I need your attention now kids

Due to the recent events that have occurred

Effective immediately, all classes are suspended

Until further notice

{*children cheering*}

[Remedy]

Black and white notebooks and ball-point pens

The first day of school, might make some new friends

From the 103, dreams to me was a Benz

Or the 3 o'clock bell that sounds when school ends

Lunch room status, we used to roll dice

Bang beats on the tables to see who was nice

Swore we knew it all, didn't want no advice

How unfortunate, some paid the ultimate price

We used to cut class all day, roam around the hallways

With little wooden passes

I remember 6th grade, assembly, shirt with tie

The young little Remedy, wonderin why

I did what I was told to get to junior high

Cuz at that point in time I believed I could fly

Big blue binders, young designer finders

Livin in the world with no rules, high school

Language arts, I sat and wrote darts

My mind ran wild and free like Young Hearts

Mathematics, where I based my foundation

Fall to the nation on wack Education

[Chorus: Children of the World (Remedy)]

We don't need no Education

We don't need no thought control

(What we need?)

What we need is information

Teach us, leave those kids alone

[RZA]

Yo, yo, sit in the back of the class with my hand up
2 wild security guards just grabbed my man up (HEY!)
Threw him in detention for 5 days suspension
Cuz sunset, the teacher was lyin about the Indians
Tryin to tell much of the story of Columbus
Tryin to brain-numb us, when all you see, that came from us
They copy-carvin, I learned about Gods and Taggin Wu
