These times can bring me down
But you lift me up, yeah you lift me up
These times can bring me down
But you lift me up, yeah you lift me up
You know

Scare politics, lost love and thrills
Always too fucking broke to pay these bills
No directions, late growing pains
Teenager whores popping pills on the train

These people always bring me down
But you lift me up, yeah you lift me up
These people always bring me down
But you lift me up, yeah you lift me up
You know

All the fascist fathers and their fascist boys
Mothers and the daughters without a voice
Money leaders, slaves for the royal blue
Girls who think what would miss Bradshaw do

You know it's not the end
So lift your head
You know it's not the end
So lift your head
You know it's not the end
So lift your head
You know it's not the end
So lift your head

You know it's not the end
So lift your head
You know it's not the end
