Im familiar with this town
The local crowds at the same old places
Day in, day out day in, day out
Stepping outside to the same old thing
Would not feel like a life to me
Get up, walk out Theres still a chance now
Would you do it the same if your life started over?

Take the easy way out, but send your regrets
(Just scream your regrets)
The path you chose, the price you paid, the chance is gone
Look back and scream
(Just scream your regrets)

This town can be so boring
Always hearing the same old stories
Breathe in, scream out Were tuning out now
Can you feel me turn away?
When you bring up your glory days
Got up, walked out Thats not what Im about
Would you do it the same if your life wasnt over?

Take the easy way out, but send your regrets
(Just scream your regrets)
The path you chose, the price you paid, the chance is
gone
Look back and scream
(Just scream your regrets)

No more dreams - You never thought youd be here forever.
Same routine - Heres my chance, its either now or never.
Meet me on the other side Meet me on the other side

Or take the easy way out, but send your regrets
(Just scream your regrets)
The path you chose, the price you paid, the chance is
gone
Look back and scream

(Just scream your regrets)
