and i can still smell you on my sheet and now i know what it feels like to be crushed and now i know what it feels like to be a novelty and now i know what it feels like to be drowned by someone you love its all over but im still choking on the lies [x2] how can we go on living line after line i can only stich myself up so many times how can all this have happened in less than a day then again it wouldnt have been the first time you threw us all away i've waited so long for someone like you to fill my days with ruin every smile is a painful reminder of how i let you continue all the tears in the world could never stop all the heartbreaking wreckage you did that i love that i cant get enough but i'd be lying if i said that i didn't expect it you've past me twice but our eyes haven't met again you turned my world into remnants of blood in my sink will you pick up the pieces again?
or let them fall to ashes in yor pretty hands again you walk all over me it's all over but im still choking on the lies
you walk all over me
the pain ensues knives can only go so deep you have penetrated the hardest heart and now i cant help but to return the favor
