So yeah, the girl bites her lip
So yeah, the boys eyes are busy and i know what's been missin' Nervous nights, no second guessing those 3 numbers he's not pressing conversations never ending... yeah

Shouldn't he just make the move?
second hand just points to prove my point
It doesn't happen all to often (all to often)
Shouldn't she just take the chance
like she took holding his hand
And I know, it doesnt happen all to often

Come on kid you gotta figure this out just act stronger, you got her number What are you worried about?
It's girls like this that we live for, live for

Come on kid you gotta figure this out
just act stronger, you got her number Just chill out, just shut up Let's just talk because we can't get enough

So yeah, the girl bites her lip
So yeah, the boys hands are busy
and I know what's been missin' Playfull nighttimes, well worth spending
The other boy that she's been kissing
This highscool thing that's had its ending

Shouldn't he just make the move?
second hand just points to prove my point
It doesn't happen all to often (all to often)
Shouldn't she just take the chance
like she took holding his hand
And I know, it doesnt happen all to often

And I know, it doesnt happen all to often (all to often)
And I know, it doesnt happen all to often So yeah...
