Empty wound
At a single draft alone
Drain this ruin
The farthest one can come too close

Life could be better if I let me in (Why is to hold onto)
But I force myself towards departing
(Leaving is what you do)

I had to rub my dirty in the soil
I had to be the rascal taking all
I wanted us to live in times of bliss
I couldn't evoke the memories I had missed

Left this wound
Abandoned my ideals for what?
(Why do we just like you)
Molded like I'm shaped and sized with anyone (Standing like I need to)
(Everyone just like you)

I had to rub my dirty in the soil
I have to be the rascal taking all
I wanted us to live in times of bliss
I couldn't evoke the memories I had missed

Shut your eyes fast, it all goes blank and channel the vision, feel the scent of Someone who dares to lose it all
Someone who's ready to take the fall for it

(Shut and lighten all when we hold)

I'm taking all, am I taking all
(As a rascal I'm taking all) Am I taking you all?
I'm taking all, am I taking you all
I was the rascal taking all, am I taking you all?
