You have to make it - do you want to take control, while it's most ecstatic I'll give a clue to What you'll find beneath this

You reach the point
Where you live - forever forever and ever

-go
and run away for cover you have to breath, control move away from everyone

If you scream under water you can't hear a thing
If you hit under water
you can't hit a thing

forever and ever

you can't hear a thing

run away for cover
you have to breath, control

"you need control"
