In my head
i was wastin' away who got lucky when i couldn't stay testify my reasons and my worries i'm runnin' hot but there's nowhere to go walk that walk hopin' nobody knows she was rich but i was beautiful (gotta change the world around me)

all the fun we never had lookin' on back child
cause i'm in love with the better half of me looking back on vanity

the wounds i'm feeling have troubled my plan a longer distance ain't makin' the man should have tried to learn my lesson well amplified by the days on my own recognizin' my blood from my bone
