"The Reason"

There's a reason
That I'm trying to get through
A reason, there's something else to do
Who put it there I don't know
Who put it there I don't know
I don't know

There's a feeling
And it's shining through your face
A feeling, that shouldn't be misplaced
Where does it come from I don't know
Where does it come from I don't know
I don't know

There must be a thousand things you feel shouldn't un be said
I have a thousand dreams just lying in my bed
Around the world their eyes are pointing to the sky
But before a chance to straighten out our eyes

There's an answer
And it's lying in your head
A reason, one should not forget
Who put it there I don't know
Who really cares I don't know
I don't know
