(substance records: california)

you ride to work
and say i love you
to heal this pain
i'm dying to
your words are flames
that feels like fire out for me to see you smile
is all i ever wanted to see
for me

as we became became i need you
i lost my wings
and i lost you too
but you say the word
i'll seem like fire out for you to hear your voice
is all i ever wanted to do for you

i try to stay here
but all i did was brought you down you pulled away
just look at me now
if i could change
i'd tear this twisted frame in two i'd bend my life for you for you
