Television
is the condition of my connection to the machine
and in its warm glow
we watched the flames grow till the bones show till it stripped you clean

well i had it bad
we were barely on the screen with the trips i had swallowed everything
except for you

chorus:
now the last great hollywood high stole right over the rails and i'm the last great hollywood high after it shows who knows where it will go?

halloween dust

came between us
it always seemed just in the way it's the decision
your script revision
all the stars evolve
but the story's the same

well i had it bad
you were barely on the screen
with the trips i had
swallowed everything
except for you
repeat chorus

well i've had it bad
i was barely on the screen

with the trips i had
swallowed everything
well i had it bad

repeat chorus
