You are always cursed when she comes around
That's your excuse, you keep looking down
Had you ever let the fear in you
Take you over, keep you twisted up, confused?
How could you let them get to you?

You could change this world
To an amazing, 'mazing world

(Chorus)

If you could just recognize your worth
You could have anything on earth
If you could just see yourself inside
You're fine and everything's alright
See how it all works in reverse?
If you could just recognize your worth
You can have anything on earth

Always get so cold when he's standing near
Then you always bitch when he disappears

Had you ever let the fear in you
Take you over, keep you twisted up, confused?
How could you let them get to you?

You could change this world
To an amazing, 'mazing world

Repeat Chorus

(Bridge)

I want you to know this
I've been where you are now
I want you to notice this
We'll get you there somehow

And it's okay
It's okay
I will get you there somehow

Repeat Chorus
